

Mission Messenger!

Living our faith. Enriching lives.

"Be still, and know that I am God!" Psalm 39:10a

Dear Friends in Christ, since announcing my retirement, I've been asked multiple times, "so what are you going to do?" At first, the question brought a little panic on my part, "what was I going to do?" Am I supposed to have a plan for how I will fill each and every day with meaning and purpose? That's a lot of pressure!

Then the verse above came to mind and with it a profound sense of peace. "What am I going to do?" "Be still," be still and trust that in the stillness God will show me the places my gifts and talents will best meet the needs of the world.

So, as I write my final article to you, I encourage you also in this time of transition to, "Be still and know that God is God." Don't stress over what's next for St John. Trust that God's got this. Just as God always has.

"Be still" and listen. Listen for the places the gifts and talents of you, the people of St John, best meet the needs of the world. You may find it in an existing ministry or something completely new. The first step to discovery is to "be still." Be still and listen for God's direction.

As you practice this, remember that God has held St John for well over 150 years. Through fires and building programs, pastoral transitions, membership decline and growth, financial struggles, and stability; God has held you through it all and will continue to hold you now and into the future.

Friends, it has been my deep honor to serve as your pastor and you will forever hold a special place in my heart. God's blessings as you seek to "be still and know that God is God."

Peace,
Pastor Cindy

HOSPITALITY & CELEBRATION

Embracing New Beginnings: Supporting Our Pastoral Transition

As a cherished faith community, we truly believe that the Holy Spirit guides us—not only when someone is called into ministry, but also when it's time for them to embark on a new journey, like retirement. How we, as a congregation, navigate these transitions with our former ministers is incredibly important for the health and vibrancy of our church family, for Pastor Cindy, and for the wider Church. Holding onto past ties in ways that aren't healthy can sometimes keep us from fully embracing the wonderful ministry of those who follow.

We know you've built deeply loving and caring relationships with Pastor Cindy and her family over the years, and these friendships are truly a blessing. It's absolutely wonderful and appropriate to continue these personal connections and to offer your warm hospitality. However, we gently ask that you avoid involving her in discussions about church matters or seeking her advice regarding our current pastor.

As we joyfully open our hearts and arms to our new Intentional Interim pastor, Pastor Doug Holtz, we want to remind everyone that all pastoral duties—like weddings, funerals, baptisms, and home communions—are now under his loving care. While it's natural to think of Pastor Cindy for these special moments, reaching out to her for these occasions can, unfortunately, create an awkward situation for everyone involved. You can show your deep respect for the pastoral office Pastor Cindy held by inviting Pastor Doug to be present during these significant life events. This is a truly wonderful opportunity to build a strong and meaningful relationship with him and allow him to minister to you in deeply personal ways.

When a new minister begins their service with us, it's a shared responsibility for each of us to embrace them with love, offer our understanding and forgiveness, and to turn to them for pastoral leadership. If you find yourself feeling a little unsure, or not yet fully connected with our new minister, please know that it's a shared journey, and each of us plays a part in building that connection.

If you have any questions or concerns, please reach out to myself or a member of the Council. We will be happy to answer any questions you may have. We also ask that you continue to keep us, the Council, and the Congregation in your prayers as we start this journey to search for our next pastor.

Yours in Christ,
Sean Day
Council President

Little Library

Finished a good book and don't know what to do with it? Put it in the St. John Little Library for others to enjoy! (Library is located on Lost Dauphin next to the driveway.) We are also looking for someone to maintain the library. This includes checking every few weeks that materials are orderly, appropriate and if it's running low alerting the office to ask for donations. More than one volunteer can do this! Contact the office to let them know you can help.

CALL TO WORSHIP † Make the sign of the cross. Blessed be the holy Trinity, one God, whose steadfast love endures forever. Amen

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS OF SINS

Merciful God, you free us to love others, but we neglect our neighbors and follow our own way. You lead us by the Spirit of joy and peace, but we turn away from the abundant life you offer. You surround us with patience, kindness, and generosity, but we grow weary in doing what is right. In your mercy, forgive us. Do not give up on us. Heal us, break our bonds, and show us the path of life. Amen.

DWELLING IN SCRIPTURE PSALM 82

¹ God stands to charge the divine council assembled, giving judgment in the midst of the gods:

² “How long will you judge unjustly, and show favor to the wicked?”

³ Save the weak and the orphan; defend the humble and needy;

⁴ rescue the weak and the poor; deliver them from the power of the wicked.

⁵ They do not know, neither do they understand; they wander about in darkness; all the foundations of the earth are shaken.

⁶ Now I say to you, ‘You are gods, and all of you children of the Most High;

⁷ nevertheless, you shall die like mortals, and fall like any prince.’ ”

⁸ Arise, O God, and rule the earth, for you shall take all nations for your own.

*Read the appointed lesson for the day. Take time to reflect and discuss its message or journal your reflections.
Let the Holy Spirit guide you.*

†AUGUST 3RD

8TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Luke 12:13-21

In God’s reign, the “rich will be sent away empty.” Jesus uses a parable to warn against identifying the worth of one’s life with the value of one’s possessions rather than one’s relationship with God.

Prayer of the Day

Benevolent God, you are the source, the guide, and the goal of our lives. Teach us to love what is worth loving, to reject what is offensive to you, and to treasure what is precious in your sight, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

†AUGUST 10TH

9TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Luke 12:32-40

Jesus encourages disciples to invest their hearts and live fully into God’s reign. Instead of facing life with fear, those who know God’s generosity are always ready to receive from God and to give to others.

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, you sent your Holy Spirit to be the life and light of your church. Open our hearts to the riches of your grace, that we may be ready to receive you wherever you appear, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

†AUGUST 17TH

10TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Luke 12:49-56

Jesus delivers harsh words about the purifying and potentially divisive effects of obedience to God’s call. The way of the cross often leads followers to encounter hostility and rejection, even from those they love.

Prayer of the Day

O God, judge eternal, you love justice and hate oppression, and you call us to share your zeal for truth. Give us courage to take our stand with all victims of bloodshed and greed, and, following your servants and prophets, to look to the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

DWELLING IN SCRIPTURE CONTINUED

†AUGUST 24TH 11TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Luke 13:10-17

Jesus heals a woman on the sabbath, offering her a new beginning for her life. When challenged by a narrow reading of the sabbath command, Jesus responds by expanding “sabbath work” to include setting people free from bondage.

Prayer of the Day

O God, mighty and immortal, you know that as fragile creatures surrounded by great dangers, we cannot by ourselves stand upright. Give us strength of mind and body, so that even when we suffer because of human sin, we may rise victorious through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS

Pray for the church, the world, your prayer list, the people in the church directory and anything else that the Holy Spirit places on your heart.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERING

God calls us to give generously of our hearts and gifts. How will you live and give today?
Visit www.stjohndepere.org to give online.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever, and ever. Amen.

MISSION & SERVICE

Mission Trip 2025 Benton Harbor, MI

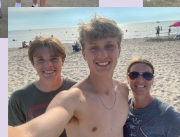

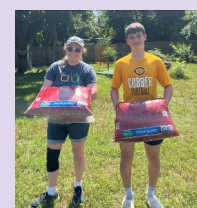

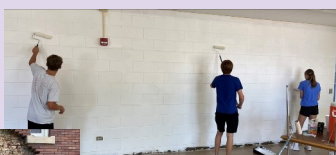

Monday was jam-packed on the mission trip! We did landscaping, started painting a church, heard a wonderful message from Sharon Brown at the African American History and Literature Museum, cleaned out water-damaged rooms at a Salvation Army men's shelter, and made some new friends.

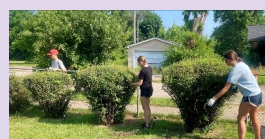

Our youth had a "ball" on the mission trip! Tuesday, we did a LOT of landscaping! We also spent time at an adult day center, played stick ball and spike ball with other congregations, got ice cream, and heard from Mary Alice, who talked about following our faith to change our communities

Wednesday was jam-packed! We spent the day painting and landscaping, followed by a dip in Lake Michigan at Silver Lake Beach. Worship was a treat with fun music and glow sticks on the lawn of our housing site.

Thursday marked our last work day of the mission trip. We were sad that our time was coming to an end. We spent more time painting and landscaping and had a special lunchtime concert by jazz musician Kenny Cooper.

Synod Assembly Report - 2025

On Saturday June 7, 2025, Jim Johanek, Pastor Cindy, and I attended the East Central Synod of Wisconsin meeting at Calvary Lutheran in Green Bay. Many years ago my grandfather, father, and even my husband attended the Synod meetings. When I asked what was done, their replies were “church business”. So this year I found out what the “church business” was.

This year three resolutions were passed-

1. Memorialize missing and murdered indigenous women and educate church members about the injustices that occurred. Prevent it from happening again.
2. Remembrance of the horrific treatment to Native Americans at Indian Boarding Schools. The truth should be told and prevent this from happening to other groups.
3. Report abuse done by synod leaders, clergy, teachers, any employee or volunteer of the church.

The title of the assembly this year was “To Serve All People Following the Example of Jesus.” We need to work on becoming a stronger church and be open to other people’s ideas. Don’t block ideas, or say “we did that already.” A member may have a different approach. Serving all people in the congregation is important. We must include all age groups, cultures and become open to different ideas.

The most meaningful part of the meeting was the keynote presentation by Venice Williams, Director of Alice’s Garden in Milwaukee. She explained as church members we need to be open to various ideas to help our church members and community. Simple things like teaching how to cook your favorite meal, demonstrating a sewing project, having a songfest including all types of music, forming parenting circles and setting aside time to talk to others. The one I liked best was sharing your favorite garden produce with church members. This summer it would be wonderful to see church members bring in food from their gardens to be shared by others.

Other points that stood out to me were -

1. Walls are to protect and keep people safe, not to keep people out!
2. Rest is not a privilege. No excuses, volunteer your time and talents.

Thank you for the opportunity to attend the 2025 Synod meeting. Next year’s meeting is June 4-6, 2026 held in Oshkosh. Think about representing our church by attending!
