BOOK CLUB

St. John's Book Club will meet on Thursday, December 21 at 1:00 PM. We will meet in the Luther Room. We will be discussing The Lost Apothecary by Sarah Penner. In present day London, aspiring historian Caroline Parcellwell spends her tenth wedding anniversary alone, running from her own demons. When she stumbles on a clue to the unsolved apothecary murders that haunted London two hundred years ago, her life collides with the apothecary's in a stunning twist of fate, and not everyone will survive. If you were unable to attend the November meeting, extra copies of the book are available at church. Contact Donna Hjorth (336-5990) or Jan Vanden Heuvel (639-6987) for more information. Everyone is welcome!

WORSHIP AT HOME

CALL TO WORSHIP † Make the sign of the cross. Blessed be the holy Trinity, one God, who is eager to forgive and who loves us beyond our days. Amen.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS OF SINS

Everlasting God, you love justice and you hate wrongdoing. We confess the fear, greed, and self-centeredness that make us reluctant to work against oppression. We are complicit in systems of exploitation. We choose comfort over courage. We are careless with creation's bounty. Look upon us with mercy. Turn our hearts again to you. Make us glad to do your will and to walk in your ways for the sake of our waiting world. Amen.

DWELLING IN SCRIPTURE PSALM 80:1-7, 17-19

¹Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, leading Joseph like a flock; shine forth, you that are enthroned upon the cherubim.

²In the presence of Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, stir up your strength and come to help us.

³Restore us, O God; let your face shine upon us, and we shall be saved.

⁴O LORD God of hosts, how long will your anger fume when your people pray?

⁵You have fed them with the bread of tears; you have given them bowls of tears to drink.

⁶You have made us the derision of our neighbors, and our enemies laugh us to scorn.

⁷Restore us, O God of hosts; let your face shine upon us, and we shall be saved.

¹⁷Let your hand be upon the one at your right hand, the one you have made so strong for yourself.

¹⁸And so will we never turn away from you; give us life, that we may call upon your name.

¹⁹Restore us, O LORD God of hosts; let your face shine upon us, and we shall be saved.

*Read the appointed lesson for the day. Take time to reflect and discuss its message or journal your reflections.
Let the Holy Spirit guide you.*

†DECEMBER 3RD

1ST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Mark 13:24-37

Jesus encourages his followers to look forward to the day when he returns in power and glory to end all suffering.

Prayer of the Day

Stir up your power, Lord Christ, and come. By your merciful protection awaken us to the threatening dangers of our sins, and keep us blameless until the coming of your new day, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

†DECEMBER 10TH

1ST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Mark 1:1-8

The Gospel of Mark does not begin with a story of Jesus' birth but with the voice of one crying out in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord.

Prayer of the Day

Stir up our hearts, Lord God, to prepare the way of your only Son. By his coming strengthen us to serve you with purified lives; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

†DECEMBER 17TH

1ST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

John 1:6-8, 19-28

John's gospel describes Jesus as the "light of the world." John the Baptist is presented as a witness to Jesus, one who directs attention away from himself to Christ, the true light.

Prayer of the Day

Stir up the wills of your faithful people, Lord God, and open our ears to the words of your prophets, that, anointed by your Spirit, we may testify to your light; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

WORSHIP

DWELLING IN SCRIPTURE CONTINUED

DECEMBER 24TH 4TH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Luke 1:26-38

In this annunciation, Luke makes clear that God comes with good news for ordinary people from little known places. This king will not be born to royalty in a palace, but to common folk in a stall. Here Luke highlights the role of the Spirit, a special emphasis in this gospel.

Prayer of the Day

Stir up your power, Lord Christ, and come. With your abundant grace and might, free us from the sin that would obstruct your mercy, that willingly we may bear your redeeming love to all the world, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

DECEMBER 31ST 1ST SUNDAY OF CHRISTMAS

Luke 2:22-40

Luke's narrative continues with stories that emphasize Jesus' connection to Judaism. His family is devout in its observance of the law, and Jesus himself is recognized as one who will bring glory to Israel.

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, you wonderfully created the dignity of human nature and yet more wonderfully restored it. In your mercy, let us share the divine life of the one who came to share our humanity, Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

PRAYERS

Pray for the church, the world, your prayer list, the people in the church directory and anything else that the Holy Spirit places on your heart.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERING

God calls us to give generously of our hearts and gifts. How will you live and give today?

Visit www.stjohndepere.org to give online.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever, and ever. Amen.

The St. John Lutheran Church Sunday School and Youth Choir will be presenting their Christmas Program "Christmas Hang-ups" on Sunday, December 10th during the 10am worship service.

"It's just before Christmas and the tree ornaments have been awakened from their yearly hibernation by the movement of their storage box. It's time! The "Christmas-y" ornaments don't understand what the "un-Christmas-y" ornaments have to do with Christmas. Another figure from the mantelpiece shows up to explain to all of them what Christmas is about and how they each have significance in God's amazing plan of redemption through His Son, Jesus."

All Sunday School children and the Youth Choir are to dress up as ornaments on a Christmas tree. If questions, reach out to Jill Q. @ 920-360-5772 or JillQMusic1@aol.com

Holiday Bed Delivery Story

Recently on a bright sunny morning our delivery team arrived at our first stop of the day. It was an older apartment building that was recently renovated with new locks, paint, and flooring. Mom met us at the door and to our surprise she ushered us into a downstairs apartment. You see we always seem to deliver to the second floor so it's starting off to be a good day. As we entered the apartment the lights were off and the living room curtains drawn closed making it hard to see as she led us towards the bedroom. Suddenly out of the corner of my eye something on the floor moved! Was it a cat or dog my mind thought as I struggled to make out the image in the darkness. Nevertheless Mom continued on and we entered the bedroom where she explained where we would be setting up the bunk bed and the single bed for her three boys. We turned around ready to retrieve our tools and supplies from the trailer when the lights were turned on in the hallway. To my surprise I'm now looking at the floor where something had just moved again. But this time it wasn't the pet my eyes couldn't make out earlier. It was three kids all under the age of ten, snuggled together in a nest of blankets and clothes. They had spent the night on the cold hard laminate floor struggling to find a comfortable place to sleep. Our team made quick work of assembling the beds and we were off to the next delivery but not without a reminder of our mission.

MISSION & SERVICE

Hi from Mission sewing,

We would like to thank everyone who helped make the craft and bake sale a huge success. We made a total of $860.00 dollars which will help us to continue with making the mission quilts. If anyone is interested in joining us to help, make quilts we meet every Thursday from 9am until noon. You can come for as long as time permits for you to help or take a bag of squares home to sew and bring back to the church when done. We have lots of laughs and treats. Hope to see you there. The youth shopped 'til they dropped buying great stuff for the

DPCO Christmas store!

We had a tasty lunch at McDonald's before heading to Ashwaubenon for shopping, using funds donated by the congregation.

Teenage DPCO Christmas Store patrons will be getting cool clothes, body care items, electronics, and other goodies. What a fun service activity!

Water Bottle Sunday School Project

We're so close!!! So far we have provided 35 high quality water bottles to the De Pere school district for students in need. Our goal is 48! As of Nov. 20th we've raised $237 of the $320 needed. When we reach this goal (which with your continued support we will!) we will move to the Lunch Box project. The Lunch Box project helps pay for school lunch for students in need whose lunch accounts are behind.

CELEBRATION AND OUTREACH

This month's focus for the DPCO Food Pantry is Boxed Cereal.

If you, a loved one, or a friend would like to be held in prayer, please call Karen Cota at 920-632-2015 or e-mail Carlyn Cooper at clpdckm@twc.com. We will get your requests out to our faithful prayer warriors.

MISSION & SERVICE

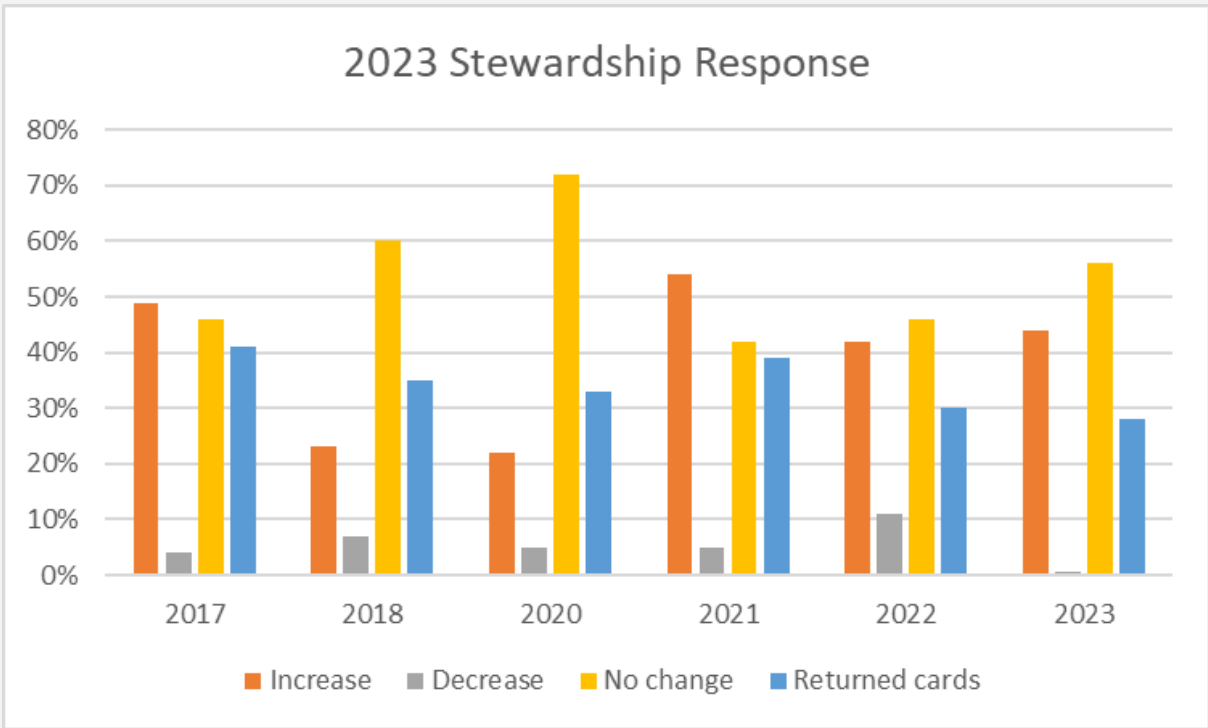

Throughout November we had the opportunity to hear and read about the impact that St. John as a faith community has had on individuals and families.

We also had the opportunity to return our Statement of Intent for 2024. Thank you to all those who responded! Your continued support of St. John is vital to the many ministries of this congregation. Your gifts allow us to provide bibles for our students, baptismal supplies, Sunday school curriculum, Adult education opportunities, and worship. Because of you, youth experience camp, participate in mission trips and grow in faith together and because of your faithfulness, we have been able to share generously beyond our walls to many ministry partners.

In 2023, beyond our walls, gifts were sent to Crossways Camps, DPCO Food Pantry and Christmas Store, Lutheran World Relief, Lutheran Disaster Response, NEW Shelter, Mission Sewing, our local Synod and the larger church.

THANK YOU!! Together we are Living our faith Enriching lives
