"The Risen Lord"

Chinese artist He Qi uses geometrical blocks of imagery and bold colors to make us reflect on the painting representing the familiar while at the same time challenging our perception by using attention-grabbing colors and boldly intersecting lines. After studying medieval art in Germany which most often shows biblical scenes with European-looking people in European settings, He Qi was inspired to depict biblical stories against a Chinese background with Chinese characters.

"You Are Loved"

The image of Jesus in front of a colorful background, inspired by the traditional rainbow colors represent the LGBTQ community. The addition of the black and brown stripes are meant to represent the black and brown members of the LGBTQ community, and the light blue, light pink, and white colors specifically represent the transgender community. The symbols on the cross behind Jesus stand for "He Who Is." It's common to see the symbols on ancient (and modern) iconography.

"Jesus of the People"

by Janet McKenzie has been described as a "haunting image of a peasant Jesus-dark, thick-lipped, looking out on us with ineffable dignity, with sadness but with confidence. Over His white robe He draws the darkness of our lack of love, holding it to Himself, prepared to transform all sorrows if we will let him."

"Good Shepherd"

This image of Jesus has greeted those entering St. John for years. The new images by the snack/coffee area seek to move all of us to a more globally inclusive image of God.

Hospitality & Celebration

~ Meet the Council ~

To get to know the members of Council on a more personal level, each month we feature one new Council person and their responses to a variety of questions. This month we are featuring Kim Ronsman who is the liaison for the Stewardship committee.

How long have you been a member of St. John?

I have been a member since December, 2021. The outdoor worship services during Covid initially drew us here, but once we began indoor worship, this just felt like the right place for us.

Favorite book, movie or meal?

I would have to say that our "Wednesday Family Dinners" are my favorite meals. For the last 11 years, Wednesday has been Grandma Day followed by our adult kids and grandchildren joining us for dinner. Aside from that, I also really enjoy outdoor dining venues in almost any of the places our travels take us.

A talent no one knows about?

I don't really think I have any "hidden talent". If I do, it's so well hidden that even I haven't discovered it yet!

Childhood memory?

I attended Camp Luther in Three Lakes, WI. Our children attended as they went through their childhoods. Now we are able to share that experience with our grandchildren each summer. It's a wonderful opportunity to take time to reflect on God's beautiful creations and how blessed we are to be a part of it.

How does my faith form my stewardship?

I have always been involved with my church in some capacity. For the past 12 years, I have also worked at a local church, helping them fulfill their mission and ministry. As we face retirement, Randy and I are both looking for ways we can volunteer to share our time and experience serving the community.

What keeps me centered?

I spend a lot of time walking and listening to audio books. It just feels good to be outside and if my mind wanders a bit as I walk, I just back up my book to listen to whatever I missed.

Family

Randy and I will celebrate our 40th wedding anniversary in June and as I write this we are preparing for retirement. Our family includes our daughter Katy, her husband, Kelley and our grandsons, Jack & Henry as well as our son, Alex and his girlfriend, Kennedy. In retirement we look forward to continuing our travels, pursuing volunteer opportunities and enjoying the Wisconsin outdoors.

WORSHIP AT HOME

CALL TO WORSHIP † Make the sign of the cross. Blessed be the holy Trinity, one God, who creates us, redeems us, and calls us by name. Amen.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS OF SINS

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned. We have hurt our community. We have squandered your blessings. We have hoarded your bounty. In the name of Jesus, forgive us and grant us your mercy.

DWELLING IN SCRIPTURE PSALM 8

- ¹O Lord our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!—
- ²you whose glory is chanted above the heavens out of the mouths of infants and children; you have set up a fortress against your enemies, to silence the foe and avenger.
- ³When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,
- ⁴what are mere mortals that you should be mindful of them, human beings that you should care for them?
- ⁵Yet you have made them little less than divine; with glory and honor you crown them.
- ⁶You have made them rule over the works of your hands; you have put all things under their feet:
- ⁷all flocks and cattle, even the wild beasts of the field,
- ⁸the birds of the air, the fish of the sea, and whatever passes along the paths of the sea.
- ⁹O Lord our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Read the appointed lesson for the day. Take time to reflect and discuss its message or journal your reflections. Let the Holy Spirit guide you.

†JUNE 4TH - 1ST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Matthew 28:16-20

After his resurrection, Jesus summons his remaining disciples and commissions them to baptize and teach all nations in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Prayer of the Day

Almighty Creator and ever-living God: we worship your glory, eternal Three-in-One, and we praise your power, majestic One-in-Three. Keep us steadfast in this faith, defend us in all adversity, and bring us at last into your presence, where you live in endless joy and love, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

†JUNE 11TH - 2ND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Matthew 9:9-13, 18-26

Jesus demonstrates God's mercy and power, accepting the unacceptable and curing the incurable. Even the dead receive new life.

Prayer of the Day

O God, you are the source of life and the ground of our being. By the power of your Spirit bring healing to this wounded world, and raise us to the new life of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

†JUNE 18TH - 3RD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Matthew 9:35-10:8

The mission of Jesus' followers is to continue the mission of Jesus himself. Here, he instructs his first disciples as to how they might proclaim the gospel through their words and deeds.

Prayer of the Day

God of compassion, you have opened the way for us and brought us to yourself. Pour your love into our hearts, that, overflowing with joy, we may freely share the blessings of your realm and faithfully proclaim the good news of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Worship

†JUNE 25TH - 4TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Matthew 10:24-39

Jesus warns his disciples that their ministry in his name will meet with opposition. However, he assures them that they need not fear for the truth will come to light. Life is found in Christ.

Prayer of the Day

Teach us, good Lord God, to serve you as you deserve, to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest, to labor and not to ask for reward, except that of knowing that we do your will, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

†JULY 2ND - 5TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Matthew 10:40-42

When Jesus sends his disciples out as missionaries, he warns them of persecution and hardships they will face. He also promises to reward any who aid his followers and support their ministry.

Prayer of the Day

O God, you direct our lives by your grace, and your words of justice and mercy reshape the world. Mold us into a people who welcome your word and serve one another, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

†JULY 9TH - 6TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Matthew 11:16-19, 25-30

Jesus chides people who find fault with both his ministry and that of John the Baptist. He thanks God that wisdom and intelligence are not needed to receive what God has to offer.

Prayer of the Day

You are great, O God, and greatly to be praised. You have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless until they rest in you. Grant that we may believe in you, call upon you, know you, and serve you, through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

†JULY 16TH - 7TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Matthew 13:1-9, 18-23

In Matthew's gospel, both Jesus and his disciples "sow the seed" of God's word by proclaiming the good news that "the kingdom of heaven is near." Now, in a memorable parable, Jesus explains why this good news produces different results in those who hear.

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, we thank you for planting in us the seed of your word. By your Holy Spirit help us to receive it with joy, live according to it, and grow in faith and hope and love, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

†JULY 23RD - 7TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43

Jesus tells a parable about the coexistence of good and evil in this world. God's judgment will remove all evildoers and causes of sin, but not until the end of human history.

Prayer of the Day

Faithful God, most merciful judge, you care for your children with firmness and compassion. By your Spirit nurture us who live in your kingdom, that we may be rooted in the way of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Worship

†JULY 30TH - 9TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Matthew 13:31-33, 44-52

In God's reign, the "rich will be sent away empty." Jesus uses a parable to warn against identifying the worth of one's life with the value of one's possessions rather than one's relationship with God.

Prayer of the Day

Throughout Matthew's gospel, Jesus and his disciples proclaim the good news that "the kingdom of heaven is near!" Here, Jesus offers several brief parables that explore the implications of this announcement for people's lives. Amen.

PRAYERS

Pray for the church, the world, your prayer list, the people in the church directory and anything else that the Holy Spirit places on your heart.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERING

God calls us to give generously of our hearts and gifts. How will you live and give today?

Visit www.stjohndepere.org to give online.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever, and ever. Amen.

New Community Shelter, Inc.

Hi from Mission sewing,

Now that it has finally become warmer don't forget about the sewing group. We meet every Thursday from 9am until noon. Come and see how we put the quilts together or come and help with putting them together. You do not have to stay the whole time, just come for as long as you can. Also, don't forget that if you have any gently used bedding or fabric you want to get rid of you can drop it off at church. If you are unable to come on Thursday you could take a bag of squares that the Syble Hopp students put together to sew and bring back to church when finished. If you do come we do have treats and lots of laughs. Hope to see you there.

Judy Beerntsen

Many thank yous are deserved for the people who brought food and shared their time to host the funeral luncheon for Charlotte Schink's funeral on May 6, 2023. The luncheon was beautiful and the tables were set perfectly in her honor with the red napkins and musical decor. She would have loved it!

Our appreciation goes to Lois McAllister, Sarah Vissers, Marlene Bergum, Steve Simons, Gail Ryan, Ruth Aerts, Phyllis Day, Rita Miller, Patti Willems, Sally Campshure, Helen Labs, and Steve and Sharon Wilmet for all of the delicious food. Also, thank you to Elaine, Dave, Lois, Jan, Ralph, Donna, Gail, MaryAnn, Sally, Donna, Helen, Marsha, Ruth, and Karlyn for serving our family and friends so graciously.

Our parents relished the support and comfort they found at St. John's Lutheran Church. It provided many of our childhood memories and family friendships our family cherishes and we are eternally grateful for the faith foundation we established there. We pray your members can also root themselves in your faith community to nourish and abide with them for their whole lives, too.

St. John Lutheran Church Council Meeting 4/18/23 7:00pm

1 Attendance:

Present: Pastor Cindy, Travis Schreurs, Bill Lake, Jen Holtebeck, Kim Ronsman,
1 Susan Van Asten, Katie Schneekloth, Ryan Usiak, Dick Vanden Heuvel,
2 and Lin Reichstadter

Absent: Mike McMullen

2. Call to Order: Travis called the meeting to order at 6:59 pm.

2. Scripture study, discussion, and prayer: Scripture selection from Luke 24:13-35 read by Lin. Following discussion, Susan led the prayer of the day.

3. Approval of Agenda: Travis asked for a motion to approve tonight's Agenda or for any changes. The motion was made by Susan; second by Lin. Motion carried.

4. Approval of Consent Agenda: Travis asked if there were changes or additions to any ministry reports.

a. Property Management. There was discussion about what to do about the GREAT Room floor. Dick will look into and get prices on options such as vinyl flooring.

b. Celebration and Outreach. Susan and Lin said that Beth Challe will be coming to talk to Celebration and Outreach at their meeting on Monday about DPCO and will be making a request for support. After this discussion, Travis asked for a motion to approve tonight's Consent Agenda. The motion was made by Ryan; second by Bill. Motion carried.

Discussion Agenda

New Business

Password management and record retention. The current practice for keeping passwords to church accounts was discussed. Next month we will discuss the possibility of having a more formal policy for how passwords are handled. Record retention is handled following ELCA guidelines.

Old Business

Vision for Ministry. Council set the goal that by next month's meeting each committee should set a goal based on one of four pillars and that the SMART goal format should be used.

Ministry/Committee Reports

Reports available in the office.

Adjournment: Since no further business was evident, Travis asked for a motion of adjournment. The motion was made by Kim; second by Katie. Motion carried. The meeting adjourned at 7:44 pm concluding with the Lord's Prayer.

Next Council Meeting: May 16, 2023 7:00pm
