Worship

At our Zoom Council meeting each month, the Council looks to the guidance of health officials, the ELCA and specific reports on the health of our county. After considering the aforementioned resources, the Church Council agreed to keep the church building closed for the month of August.

While the building may be closed, ministry is still happening! Just not “the way we’ve always done it.”

Worship in the parking lot with Holy Communion will continue to be offered each Sunday at 9:00am (weather permitting). Holy Communion is shared using an individual, prepackaged juice and wafer. While in the parking lot you can hear the service through your car radio by dialing into 100.1FM. The service is also recorded and posted to our website, YouTube channel (stjohndepere) and our FB page later that day.

Please use this link to serve as parking lot attendants;

Education

Your Faith Formation team looked at new ways to offer an intergenerational learning and service event. We have created a 3 day program we think will be a BLAST for all ages! Check out the details for BLAST (Bible Learning And Service Together) on pages 7 thru 10 of this newsletter.

Details regarding fall education opportunities for all ages are still being worked on. We anticipate sharing those in the September newsletter.

Celebration & Outreach/Evangelism/Service

Look at page 3 to learn about a new opportunity to serve others through safe, physically distanced visitation.

DPCO Food Pantry support- While the old way to provide for the pantry was to bring your donations to church and put them on the bakers rack, a different way to continue to support this ministry is to take the donations directly to the pantry. 347 Libal Street De Pere Mon-Fri. 10-Noon. (Can’t get there? You can still drop donations off at church - please call for office hours.)

DPCO Christmas Store Dec. 8-9, 2020- The Christmas Store committee has been hard at work this summer figuring out the necessary changes to set up and shopping that will need to be in place for this year. While 2019 saw a 45% increase in people served through the store, we anticipate the need in 2020 to be even greater. Watch for details on how you can be part of this ministry.

May we be open to the Holy Spirit leading us in new ways,
Pastor Cindy

2020 CHURCH PICNIC

The Celebration and Outreach team has decided for the safety of our members and community, we will not hold the 2020 St. John Church Picnic. While we will miss the fellowship and fun of the event this year, we look forward to the opportunities that 2021 will hold as we continue to be a people of God, living our faith and enriching lives.

HOLY COMMUNION TO GIVE & RECEIVE

To Give - We are looking for some volunteers to bring individual prepackaged Communion to our members who are unable to attend Worship in the Parking Lot.

Expectations for volunteers:

- †Phone ahead to arrange a time to visit
- †Do not enter the residence. Share Communion outside (on a porch, hand it through the door, etc. whenever possible.)
- †Wear mask and gloves (church can provide these as needed.)
- †Using the printed instructions: Pray the Lord's Prayer with the recipient, as needed assist the person in opening first the wafer and then the juice. Offer a closing blessing.
- †Let Pastor know the date you shared communion as well as any concerns you received from the person.

To Receive:

Call the church office if you are unable to attend worship and would like Holy Communion brought to you. Understand that the person bringing Communion cannot enter your residence and you will need to meet them at the door or outside.

WORSHIP IN THE HOME

Available each week on the ELCA worship blog are materials for "Worship in the Home."

CALL TO WORSHIP † Make the sign of the cross. Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God, whose steadfast love is everlasting, whose faithfulness endures from generation to generation. Amen.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS OF SINS

Trusting in the mercy of God, we confess our sin.

Reconciling God, we confess that we do not trust your abundance, and we deny your presence in our lives.

We place our hope in ourselves and rely on our own efforts. We fail to believe that you provide enough for all.

We abuse your good creation for our own benefit. We fear difference and do not welcome others as you have welcomed us.

We sin in thought, word, and deed. By your grace, forgive us; through your love, renew us; and in your Spirit, lead us; so that we may live and serve you in newness of life. Amen.

Receive this assurance; By the radical abundance of divine mercy we have peace with God through Christ Jesus, through whom we have obtained grace upon grace. Our sins are forgiven. We live now in hope.

For hope does not disappoint, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. Amen.

DWELLING IN SCRIPTURE

PSALM 67

¹May God be merciful to us and bless us; may the light of God's face shine upon us.

²Let your way be known upon earth, your saving health among all nations.

³Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you.

⁴Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you judge the peoples with equity and guide all the nations on earth.

⁵Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you.

⁶The earth has brought forth its increase; God, our own God, has blessed us.

⁷May God give us blessing, and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe.

*Read the appointed lesson for the day. Take time to reflect and discuss its message or journal your reflections.
Let the Holy Spirit guide you.*

†AUGUST 2

Matthew 14:13-21

After John the Baptist is murdered, Jesus desires a time of solitude. Still, his compassion for others will not allow him to dismiss those who need him, and he is moved to perform one of his greatest miracles.

Prayer of the Day

Glorious God, your generosity waters the world with goodness, and you cover creation with abundance. Awaken in us a hunger for the food that satisfies both body and spirit, and with this food fill all the starving world; through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

SING PRAISE

†AUGUST 9

Matthew 14:22-33

Matthew's gospel typically portrays Jesus' disciples as people of "little faith," who fail despite their best intentions. In this story, Matthew shows how Jesus comes to the disciples when they are in trouble and sustains them in their time of fear and doubt.

Prayer of the Day

O God our defender, storms rage around and within us and cause us to be afraid. Rescue your people from despair, deliver your sons and daughters from fear, and preserve us in the faith of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen

†AUGUST 16

Matthew 15:[10-20] 21-28

Jesus teaches his disciples that true purity is a matter of the heart rather than outward religious observances. Almost immediately, this teaching is tested when a woman considered to be a religious outsider approaches him for help.

Prayer of the Day

God of all peoples, your arms reach out to embrace all those who call upon you. Teach us as disciples of your Son to love the world with compassion and constancy, that your name may be known throughout the earth, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen

†AUGUST 23

Matthew 16:13-20

At a climactic point in Jesus' ministry, God reveals to Peter that Jesus is "the Messiah, the Son of the living God," and Jesus responds with the promise of a church that will overcome the very gates of Hades.

Prayer of the Day

O God, with all your faithful followers of every age, we praise you, the rock of our life. Be our strong foundation and form us into the body of your Son, that we may gladly minister to all the world, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

†AUGUST 30

Matthew 16:21-28

After Peter confesses that Jesus is "the Messiah, the Son of the living God" (16:16), Jesus reveals the ultimate purpose of his ministry. These words prove hard to accept, even for a disciple whom Jesus has called a "rock."

Prayer of the Day

O God, we thank you for your Son, who chose the path of suffering for the sake of the world. Humble us by his example, point us to the path of obedience, and give us strength to follow your commands, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen

PRAYERS

Pray for the church, the world, your prayer list, the people in the church directory and anything else that the Holy Spirit places on your heart.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERING

God calls us to give generously of our hearts and gifts. How will you live and give today?

Visit www.stjohndepere.org to give online.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever, and ever. Amen.

BLESSING

The God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus. Amen

All Who Hunger, Gather Gladly ELW#461

- 1 All who hunger gather gladly; holy manna is our bread.
Come from wilderness and wand'ring. Here in truth we will be fed.
You that yearn for days of fullness, all around us is our food.
Taste and see the grace eternal. Taste and see that God is good.
- 2 All who hunger, never strangers; seeker, be a welcome guest.
Come from restlessness and roaming. Here in joy we keep the feast.
We that once were lost and scattered in communion's love have stood.
Taste and see the grace eternal. Taste and see that God is good.
- 3 All who hunger, sing together, Jesus Christ is living bread.
Come from loneliness and longing. Here in peace we have been fed.
Blest are those who from this table live their days in gratitude.
Taste and see the grace eternal. Taste and see that God is good.

My Life Flows On in Endless Song ELW#763

- 1 My life flows on in endless song; above earth's lamentation,
I catch the sweet, though far-off hymn that hails a new creation.
Refrain
No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that Rock I'm clinging.
Since Christ is Lord of heaven and earth, how can I keep from singing?
- 2 Through all the tumult and the strife, I hear that music ringing.
It finds an echo in my soul. How can I keep from singing? Refrain
- 3 What though my joys and comforts die? The Lord my Savior liveth.
What though the darkness gather round? Songs in the night he giveth. Refrain
- 4 The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart, a fountain ever springing!
All things are mine since I am his! How can I keep from singing? Refrain

All Are Welcome ELW#641 vs. 1,3,5

- 1 Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live, a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive. Built of hopes and dreams and visions, rock of faith and vault of grace; here the love of Christ shall end divisions:
Refrain
All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.
- 3 Let us build a house where love is found in water, wine and wheat: a banquet hall on holy ground where peace and justice meet. Here the love of God, through Jesus, is revealed in time and space; as we share in Christ the feast that frees us: Refrain
- 5 Let us build a house where all are named, their songs and visions heard and loved and treasured, taught and claimed as words within the Word. Built of tears and cries and laughter, prayers of faith and songs of grace, let this house proclaim from floor to rafter: Refrain

Faith of Our Fathers ELW#812

- 1 Faith of our fathers, living still in spite of dungeon, fire, and sword. Oh, how our hearts beat high with joy whene'er we hear that glorious word.
Refrain
Faith of our fathers, holy faith, we will be true to thee till death.

- 2 The martyrs, chained in prisons dark, were still in heart and conscience free; and blest would be their children's fate if they, like them, should die for thee. Refrain
- 3 Faith of our fathers! We will love both friend and foe in all our strife; proclaim thee too, as love knows how, by saving word and faithful life. Refrain

You Have Come Down to the Lakeshore ELW#817

- 1 You have come down to the lakeshore seeking neither the wise nor the wealthy, but only asking for me to follow.
Refrain
Sweet Lord, you have looked into my eyes;
kindly smiling, you've called out my name.
On the sand I have abandoned my small boat;
now with you, I will seek other seas.
- 2 You know full well what I have, Lord: neither treasure nor weapons for conquest, just these my fish nets and will for working. Refrain
- 3 You need my hands, my exhaustion, working love for the rest of the weary-- a love that's willing to go on loving. Refrain
- 4 You who have fished other waters; you, the longing of souls that are yearning: O loving Friend, you have come to call me. Refrain

BLAST -Bible, Learning And Service Together "On earth as it is in heaven"

August 23, 24, 25, 2020 with Virtual Highlights shared on Aug. 26th at 6:30 pm.

DAY ONE - SUNDAY, AUGUST 23RD

Theme: Zero Hunger "Give us this day our daily bread."

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

When we pray, "Give us today our daily bread," we are asking God to provide for all our needs — food, shelter, love, friends, family, clothing and more! In today's Bible story, we will hear about how Jesus helped meet the needs of people who had come to listen to him.

Opening Activity

Read together the Lord's Prayer.

Questions for Conversation or reflection:

- What do you think it means to pray?
- What kinds of things do we pray for?
- What do you think we mean by "Give us today our daily bread"? What kinds of things do we need every day? (Examples: shelter, clothes, food, family, friends, love, etc. Allow a variety of responses.)

Bible Reading

As you read the story today, listen for what the people need. How did Jesus help them?

Read together Matthew 14:15-21.

Questions for Conversation or reflection:

- What did the people need?
- What did Jesus tell the disciples to do? How would you have felt if you were a disciple and Jesus told you to feed the crowd with the five loaves and two fish? How do you think the disciples felt when they fed the whole crowd?

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for giving us everything we need and friends to share with. Help us this week, if we need help, to be able to ask and, if we have something to share, to be able to share it with each other. Amen.

Service Project

REFLECT AND CONNECT

If you could eat only one food for a week, what would it be and why?

What is one special meal you remember? What made it special?

ACTION: Purchase a favorite food item of each family member and donate them to DPCO Food Pantry. (drop off at DPCO Food Pantry 347 Libal Street De Pere Mon-Fri. 10-Noon or at church- please call for office hours.)

CHALLENGE -Take a picture of yourself with your favorite food item and/or record a video sharing a short story about your favorite family meal and/or dishes that always get served at holidays. Post them to the St. John Lutheran Church FB page and/or share them to Instagram @stjohndpyouth.

(You can also email them to office@stjohndepere.org and we will post them for you.)

DAY TWO - MONDAY, AUGUST 24TH

Theme Equality "Thy kingdom Come"

God created each of us with different skills, gifts, likes and talents — all of us are part of God's "kingdom"! When we pray, "Thy kingdom come," we are asking God to remind us that we are all part of God's plan for the world and that each of us has gifts and skills to share! In today's Bible story, we will hear about the important part Mary Magdalene and Mary played in God's plans.

Opening Activity

Read together the Lord's Prayer. As you read the prayer think about who is included in God's kingdom. Questions for Conversation or reflection:

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

- What might it be like to live in God's kingdom? (Note: If younger children have trouble with the idea of "God's kingdom," suggest that "kingdom" is a bit like a country or a place where everyone is living the way God wants us to live.)
- Who would be welcome in God's kingdom?

Bible Reading

As you read the story today, think about how Mary and Mary Magdalene were part of sharing the good news. What gifts helped them be part of God's story?

Read together Matthew 28:1-10.

Questions for Conversation or reflection:

- What did the angel tell Mary Magdalene and Mary to do?
- Why did the angel tell them to do this? What special skills or gifts might they have had? (Examples: They were early risers and were at the tomb; they were fast runners and the angel needed someone who could run quickly; they were good at spreading good news and the angel needed people who were good at talking and sharing — there are lots of possible answers!)

Prayer

Thank you, God, for creating each of us different and special. Help us today to share our gifts and to be open to others sharing their gifts with us. Amen.

REFLECT AND CONNECT

What special skills or gifts do you have that make you good at sharing the good news of Jesus?

ACTION: Share God's message with someone different than you, write a letter, make a phone call etc. and just tell someone you are praying for them or that God loves them.

CHALLENGE: Share your special talent with someone. Sing them a song, draw them a picture etc. Be sure and take a picture, make a tiktok video or record your special talent and post them to the St. John Lutheran Church FB page and/or share them to Instagram @stjohndpyouth. (You can also email them to office@stjohndepere.org and we will post them for you.)

Take it further: Day Two: Equality

There are some great books available about women who faced inequality as they grew up to be leaders in their communities — and helped change things for other women and girls. Reading these at bedtime can be a great way to see the hard work people are doing to create opportunities for women and girls.

- Read Bible stories about women whom God called to be leaders.

- o Deborah — Judges 4-5

- o Esther — Book of Esther

- o Ruth — Book of Ruth

- o Shiprah and Puah — Exodus 1:15-21

- o Mary, mother of Jesus — Luke 1:39-55

DAY THREE - TUESDAY, AUGUST 25TH

Theme Good Health “Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven”

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

When we pray, “Thy will be done, on earth as in heaven,” we are praying in hope that the world will be the way God plans for it to be. God’s “will” is sort of like God’s plan. In this prayer, we are asking God to make the world the way God wants it to be — and to help us be part of God’s plan too! In today’s Bible story, we will hear about how Jesus healed a man whose friends brought him to Jesus.

Opening Activity

Read together the Lord’s Prayer. As you read the prayer, think about what God’s plan for the world might be.

Questions for Conversation or reflection:

- What do you think God wants the world to be like?
- What are some things that you think God wants for everyone in the world?
- What are some things that you think are part of God’s will for the world? (Examples: health, happiness, good, peace)
- What are some ways God can use you to do some of the things that are part of God’s will?

Bible Reading

As you read the story today, think about what the four men wanted for their friend. How did Jesus help him?

Read together Luke 5:17-39.

Questions for Conversation or reflection):

- Why couldn’t the men get their friend to Jesus? What did they do to solve the problem?
- How have friends or family helped you solve a problem?

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for your will for the world and for all the people you created to do your will. Help us be open today to seeing the ways that you are using us to bring healing and hope to each other and the world. Amen.

Virtual High School Mission Trip 2020!

Yep! You read that right! Since we could not physically go on our mission trip to St. Louis this summer, we instead participated in a virtual trip! During the week of July 19th, we shared a daily devotion, a Service Dare that included things like doing the dishes and praying for others, and fun challenges to do throughout the small week. It was a blast! While it wasn't the same as being physically together as a group, it was definitely the next best thing...God was working on our hearts all week!

To keep the group informed of our challenges and to add encouragement, we established a youth group Instagram page! Please follow us @stjohndp youth on Instagram...we'd love to have you!

Our mission trip kids are still looking for volunteer projects as well. Do you need help around the yard? A project that needs finishing? Do you know someone who needs a few extra hands? Please email Kristin at kristin@stjohndepere.org or call/text Kristin at 920-360-6045 to share information about your service project. Our teens shared that they would love to help our local community throughout the summer!
