It's the season to be thankful and we of St. John have much to be thankful for. Thanks to your faithful support in October, wonderful ministry happened here. We provided education for our youth and adults in the faith, worship and service opportunities as well as gifts that support ministry beyond our walls. In addition, we were also able to support both Crossways Camping Ministries and Sleep in Heavenly Peace with $1000 gifts to further the work that they do. Thanks also to one major and a few minor gifts we now have a completed and paid for beautiful new fire pit area to gather at for worship and fellowship. We also have a serene and useful reimagined courtyard space. This will provide an additional outdoor space where groups can gather for conversation, bible study, Sunday school classes, confirmation and fellowship. In thankful celebration I invite you to join me on Sunday, November 20th beginning at 5:30 pm. We will gather around the firepit where you can roast a hot dog, make a s'more and join in a short worship service of thanksgiving for these two new amazing outdoor spaces. Pastor Cindy

Meet the Council

Get to know the members of Council on a more personal level.
This month we are featuring Mike McMullen, the council treasurer.

How long have you been a member of St. John? What brought you to St. John?

My wife and our family joined St. John back in 1993. At that time, there was another couple in town who were good friends of ours from our college days that were members of the church. They encouraged us to join and we are so happy that they did so.

What is a favorite book, movie or meal and why is it your favorite?

Growing up on a farm, every meal seemed to be meat, potatoes, and gravy. Getting older I have learned to love pretty much all meals, especially the free-bees now that I'm retired! When I was younger, I was a prolific reader. Many times, reading two books at the same time. Then my career and family took priority and I unfortunately fell away from a good read. I can't say that I have a favorite book but I look forward to getting back on track to the comfort and satisfaction of a good book.

What is a talent no one knows you have?

I've always enjoyed restoring, re-using, or salvaging things such as furniture, hardware, and even plants. Growing up I learned to be practical and I don't like to waste things. I know when to get rid of something but sometimes when you look it over you picture another use for it. For instance, I converted an old beat up, up-right piano that had been in my wife's family for 100 years into a computer desk. Another example is an old tube radio cabinet converted to a sound system for our smart television. If a piece of furniture is not worth saving or giving to a charitable re-sale store, I will salvage what wood and hardware that I deem useful and then recycle what I can. Don't get me wrong, I am no Dick VandenHeuvel or Rick Johnson! I just love to putz and experiment. I always recycle when possible.

What's a memory from your childhood/youth of Sunday School, summer camp, Bible School or even a mission trip that you can share?

I grew up Catholic on a farm in the Kettle Moraine area of Sheboygan County. Every year as soon as public school ended for the summer, we attended Sister School every morning at our little country church for two weeks. I guess you could say that was like a summer camp. Several nuns from the Milwaukee area would stay with families of the congregation and then teach the children every morning. We would sing, read the bible, learn Catechism, and of course play games. One unique thing about it was that every day after lunch we could walk around the cemetery and randomly choose a few different grave sites to pray around. It taught me that when you die, although your destiny is already determined, you should always remember to live your life as children of God because our time on earth is so limited.

How does your faith inform your stewardship? Or how does what you believe in God motivate you in using your time and talent?

The word and wishes of God are so simple. The bible is complicated and many times hard to interpret. The 10 commandments are my main motivation. Ten amazing and uncomplicated laws supported by the teachings of Jesus. But you need to practice them. It's so easy these days to not worship because of the stress of work, family, and life in general. Social media allows you to worship at home but I just don't feel that it's as rewarding as actually attending a service. Singing hymns, listening to Pastor Cindy's sermons, and the fellowship of other members of the congregation are truly rejuvenating. Getting involved with any ministry either within the church or outside in your community, is the perfect way to get your practice your faith. It forces you to commit to doing a little more than just attending or watching a Sunday service. There is something for everyone and I encourage you to reach out. I promise you will be accepted and you will find it rewarding!

What is keeping you "centered" or "sane" right now?

Walking! The best part of my retirement so far has been a daily walk with my wife. Weather permitting, we try to walk at least three miles a day. We talk, reminisce, pray, and just enjoy the simple sights and sounds God has provided us.

Anything else you might want to share about yourself? Family, where you are from, anything else?

I'm not embarrassed to say that the epitaph on my tombstone should read; "The Man of a Thousand Wasted Steps." I suppose we can all relate to that. I have an amazing wife and family and I know that I am truly blessed. I learned very early in life to not expect much. That hard work, living within your means, and talking to God will give you an extremely satisfying life.

HOSPITALITY & CELEBRATION

BOOK CLUB

St. John's book club will meet on Thursday, November 17th at 1:00 PM. We will meet in the Luther Room. We will be discussing Code Name Verity by Elizabeth Wein. In 1943, a British fighter plane crashes in Nazi-occupied France and the survivor tells a tale of friendship, war, espionage, and great courage as she relates what she must do to survive while keeping secret all that she can. If you were unable to attend the October meeting, extra copies of the book are available at church. Contact Donna Hjorth(336-5990) or Jan Vanden Heuvel (639-6987) for more information.

EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

AMAZING JOB MISSION SEWING

Re: Donation Receipt
Dear St John Lutheran Church,

On behalf of WI-De Pere Chapter of Sleep in Heavenly Peace, Inc. its members, sponsors, volunteers and bed recipients, we would like to thank you for your generous donation. Our mission is to see that "NO KID SLEEPS ON THE FLOOR IN OUR TOWN". Often times, the beds we provide help meet requirements for families to stay together by providing suitable living conditions for children. This would not be possible without your generosity.

In accordance with the requirements found in the Internal Revenue code, section 501 (c) (3), We hereby acknowledge as an authorized representative of Sleep in Heavenly Peace, Inc. that the contribution was given as a charitable donation and no goods or services were provided in regard to this donation.

10/06/2022 33 Handmade Quilts

Again, we greatly appreciate your love and support for our cause and hope that we can continue to work with you in the future.

What a joy to have more volunteers than needed to get our quilts and school kits to the collection site on Saturday, Oct. 8th. Thank you to Dick VandenHeuvel, Helene Burmeister, Bryan and Tammy Lewis, Brian Holtebeck and Rob and Owen Carviou for your willingness to help.

WORSHIP AT HOME

CALL TO WORSHIP † Make the sign of the cross. Blessed be the holy Trinity, one God, who is eager to forgive and who loves us beyond our days. Amen.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS OF SINS

God of mercy and forgiveness, we confess that sin still has a hold on us. We have harmed your good creation. We have failed to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with you. Turn us in a new direction. Show us the path that leads to life. Be our refuge and strength on the journey, through Jesus Christ, our redeemer and friend. Amen.

DWELLING IN SCRIPTURE PSALM 98

¹Sing a new song to the LORD, who has done marvelous things, whose right hand and holy arm have won the victory.

²O LORD, you have made known your victory, you have revealed your righteousness in the sight of the nations.

³You remember your steadfast love and faithfulness to the house of Israel; all the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.

⁴Shout with joy to the LORD, all you lands; lift up your voice, rejoice, and sing.

⁵Sing to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and the voice of song.

⁶With trumpets and the sound of the horn shout with joy before the king, the LORD.

⁷Let the sea roar, and all that fills it, the world and those who dwell therein.

⁸Let the rivers clap their hands, and let the hills ring out with joy before the LORD, who comes to judge the earth.

⁹The LORD will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples with equity.

*Read the appointed lesson for the day. Take time to reflect and discuss its message or journal your reflections.
Let the Holy Spirit guide you.*

†NOVEMBER 6TH

22ND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Luke 20:27-38

Some Sadducees, who do not believe in the resurrection of the dead, try to trap Jesus. They formulate the convoluted case of a serial widow who marries a succession of seven brothers. Jesus responds by teaching about God to whom all are alive and in whom all relationships are fulfilled.

Prayer of the Day

O God, our eternal redeemer, by the presence of your Spirit you renew and direct our hearts. Keep always in our mind the end of all things and the day of judgment. Inspire us for a holy life here, and bring us to the joy of the resurrection, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
Amen

†NOVEMBER 13TH

23RD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Luke 17:11-19

As history moves toward God's fulfillment there will be frightening signs and events. Before the end, believers will draw strength from their relationship to God and will be given the words they need to testify and to endure without fear.

Prayer of the Day

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without you nothing is strong, nothing is holy. Embrace us with your mercy, that with you as our ruler and guide, we may live through what is temporary without losing what is eternal, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
Amen.

†NOVEMBER 20TH

24TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Luke 18:1-8

Jesus tells a parable of an unjust judge who is worn down by a widow's pleas. Jesus is calling God's people to cry out for justice and deliverance. For if an unethical judge will ultimately grant the plea of a persistent widow, how much more will God respond to those who call.

Prayer of the Day

O Lord God, tireless guardian of your people, you are always ready to hear our cries. Teach us to rely day and night on your care. Inspire us to seek your enduring justice for all this suffering world, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

WORSHIP

DWELLING IN SCRIPTURE CONTINUED

NOVEMBER 27TH - 1ST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Matthew 24:36-44

Jesus describes his second coming as a sudden, turbulent event that will bring about deep change to our normal, day-to-day lives. Therefore, he urges people to stay awake, be aware, and wait expectantly, because the Son of Man will come unannounced.

Prayer of the Day

Stir up your power, Lord Christ, and come. By your merciful protection save us from the threatening dangers of our sins, and enlighten our walk in the way of your salvation, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

PRAYERS

Pray for the church, the world, your prayer list, the people in the church directory and anything else that the Holy Spirit places on your heart.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERING

God calls us to give generously of our hearts and gifts. How will you live and give today?
Visit www.stjohndepere.org to give online.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever, and ever. Amen.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS!!!

We need you to help shop for Christmas Store items. Meet at church Sunday, November 13th at 11:00am. We'll head out shopping and return to church for some lunch. Please text Pastor Cindy 920.731.1719 with your name and that you plan to attend or sign up on the Youth Board. Please help us make sure there are items available at the store High Schoolers actually want for Christmas!

MISSION & SERVICE

HI FROM MISSION SEWING.....

On September 25th we had our craft sale and made $600.00 dollars. We will use the money to purchase more materials for making the quilts. Thank you for supporting us!

We meet every Thursday from 9am until noon if anyone wants to join us or just to see how we put the quilts together. We encourage you to do so. If you are unable to come on Thursday, you could take a bag of squares home to sew and bring back to church. We are always looking for any fabric that you do not need and any used or new sheets that we use for making the backs of the quilts. Hope to see you on Thursdays for laughs and treats. Judy Beerntsen

DPCO Christmas Store news

We're ready to stock the store and need your help!

St. John will be focusing on providing TOYS and Adult size SLEEPING BAGS! Toys for all ages are needed and adult size sleeping bags (Legos are always a popular and high demand item.)

The other item we are requesting is gift cards in the amount of $25 for Kwik Trip only.

There is a box in the narthex to place toys and sleeping bags. Gift cards can be turned into the office, placed in the offering, or given to Pr. Cindy or Marlene Bergum.

Thank you sharing the joy of Christmas with De Pere families in need.

ALL DONATIONS NEED TO BE AT CHURCH BY Sunday, November 20th.
