Is it time, yet?

NOVEMBER 2020 INSIDE THIS ISSUE

2-8	Hospitality/ Celebration Worship
9-10	Faith Formation
11-14	Mission & Service October Calendar
14	Church Contact Info

When are we going to get back? That's a question we're all asking a lot these days. When are we going to get back to attending football games? When are we going to get back in the office? When are we going to get back to in-person worship inside the church? The answer to all those questions is often, "we don't know," and, unfortunately, that's the case for us at St. John.

As a council, we talk about it every month. I actually dread that conversation, because it's a bit depressing. Pastor Cindy and every one of us on council can't wait for the day we can say it's time to come back. We miss seeing everybody. We miss worshipping together. We miss having coffee together after the service and so much more. The problem is, when we look at the data and consider the advice of health experts, it's just not time.

As much as I dread the COVID-19 conversation at council, we're going to keep having it every month and one day we're going to be able to tell everybody we're coming back. We won't do that, however, until we feel it's safe. The health and safety of everybody in the congregation is our priority. We'll continue to rely on the advice of health experts and make the best decisions we can based on data and science.

So, what does that mean? It means we can't answer the question, "when are we going to get back" with a specific date. What we can tell you is that we'll continue to bring you the best virtual worship experience we possibly can. Our goal is to give you a sense of being there, help you grow spiritually, maybe bring a smile to your face every once in a while and keep you engaged with our mission at St. John.

Thank you for your continued patience. Stay healthy, stay safe, keep smiling and keep tuning in to our virtual service every week, while living your faith and enriching lives.

Council President

WORSHIP AT HOME

Use this resource to worship while we are unable to be together. Know that even though we are apart; we remain connected as the body of Christ.

CALL TO WORSHIP † Make the sign of the cross. Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God, whose steadfast love is everlasting, whose faithfulness endures from generation to generation. Amen.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS OF SINS

Trusting in the mercy of God, we confess our sin.

Reconciling God, we confess that we do not trust your abundance, and we deny your presence in our lives.

We place our hope in ourselves and rely on our own efforts. We fail to believe that you provide enough for all.

We abuse your good creation for our own benefit. We fear difference and do not welcome others as you have welcomed us.

We sin in thought, word, and deed. By your grace, forgive us; through your love, renew us; and in your Spirit, lead us; so that we may live and serve you in newness of life. Amen.

Receive this assurance; By the radical abundance of divine mercy we have peace with God through Christ Jesus, through whom we have obtained grace upon grace. Our sins are forgiven. We live now in hope.

For hope does not disappoint, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. Amen.

DWELLING IN SCRIPTURE PSALM 43

<sup>1</sup>Give judgment for me, O God, and defend my cause against an ungodly people; deliver me from the deceitful and the wicked.

<sup>2</sup>For you are the God of my strength; why have you rejected me, and why do I wander in such gloom while the enemy oppresses me?

<sup>3</sup>Send out your light and your truth, that they may lead me, and bring me to your holy hill and to your sanctuary;

<sup>4</sup>that I may go to the altar of God, to the God of my joy and gladness; and on the harp I will give thanks to you, O God my God.

<sup>5</sup>Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul, and why are you so disquieted within me? Put your trust in God, for I will yet give thanks to the one who is my help and my God.

*Read the appointed lesson for the day. Take time to reflect and discuss its message or journal your reflections.
Let the Holy Spirit guide you.*

PRAYERS

Pray for the church, the world, your prayer list, the people in the church directory and anything else that the Holy Spirit places on your heart.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERING

God calls us to give generously of our hearts and gifts. How will you live and give today?

Visit www.stjohndepere.org to give online.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever, and ever. Amen.

BLESSING

The God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus.
Amen

For All the Saints

ELW#422

- 1 For all the saints who from their labors rest, who thee by faith before the world confessed, thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 2 Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 3 Oh, blest communion, fellowship divine,
we feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 4 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
and hearts are brave again and arms are strong.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Blessed Assurance

ELW#638

- 1 Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine! Oh, what a foretaste of glory divine! Heir of salvation, purchase of God, born of his Spirit, washed in his blood.

Refrain

- This is my story, this is my song, praising my Savior, all the day long: this is my story, this is my song, praising my Savior all the day long.
- 2 Perfect submission, perfect delight, visions of rapture now burst on my sight; angels descending bring from above echoes of mercy, whispers of love. Refrain
  - 3 Perfect submission, all is at rest; I in my Savior am happy and blest, watching and waiting, looking above, filled with his goodness, lost in his love. Refrain

When Peace Like A River

ELW#785

- 1 When peace like a river attendeth my way, when sorrows like sea billows roll, whatever my lot, thou hast taught me to say, it is well, it is well with my soul.

Refrain

- It is well (it is well) with my soul, (with my soul,) it is well, it is well with my soul.
- 2 Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come, let this blest assurance control, that Christ has regarded my helpless estate, and has shed his own blood for my soul. Refrain
  - 3 He lives--oh, the bliss of this glorious thought; my sin, not in part, but the whole, is nailed to his cross and I bear it no more. Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul! Refrain
  - 4 Lord, hasten the day when our faith shall be sight, the clouds be rolled back as a scroll, the trumpet shall sound and the Lord shall descend; even so it is well with my soul. Refrain

All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name!

ELW#634

- 1 All hail the pow'r of Jesus' name! Let angels prostrate fall; bring forth the royal diadem and crown him Lord of all. Bring forth the royal diadem and crown him Lord of all.
- 2 O seed of Israel's chosen race now ransomed from the fall, hail him who saves you by his grace and crown him Lord of all. Hail him who saves you by his grace and crown him Lord of all.
- 3 Hail him, you heirs of David's line, whom David Lord did call the God incarnate, man divine and crown him Lord of all. The God Incarnate, man divine and crown him Lord of all.
- 4 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget the wormwood and the gall, go spread your trophies at his feet and crown him Lord of all. Go spread your trophies at his feet and crown him Lord of all.

Hark, the Glad Sound

ELW#239

- 1 Hark, the glad sound! The Savior comes, the Savior promised long; let ev'ry heart prepare a throne and ev'ry voice a song.
- 2 He comes the pris'ners to release, in Satan's bondage held. The gates of brass before him burst, the iron fetters yield.
- 3 He comes the broken heart to bind, the bleeding soul to cure, and with the treasures of his grace to enrich the humble poor.
- 4 Our glad hosannas, Prince of peace, your welcome shall proclaim, and heav'n's eternal arches ring with your beloved name.

There is always something to be thankful for

Fred Schepp has been doing the beautiful floral arrangements for our altar.

Here is the symbolism for this month's flowers: As we approach the Lord's Table we see the three beautiful Bird of Paradise flowers that represent the Holy Trinity. The shaft of wheat reminds us that the wheat is ground into flour which is baked into unleavened bread. The grapes are crushed and made into wine. The calla lilies remind us of the fifth verse of Julia Ward Howe's THE BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC: "In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea, With a glory in his bosom that transfigures you and me: As he died to make men holy, let us die to make men free ('let us live to make men free' is used in the modern-day version), While God is marching on." (1862) The green pointed ferns are a symbol of eternal life and point to all directions of the compass which leads to our resurrected Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. "This is the body of Christ broken for you. This is the blood of Christ shed for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

THANK YOU FRED!

Blessed to Serve

The New Community Shelter welcomed eight of us to humbly serve their residents and the community a hot meal on Saturday, October 3rd. Our high school volunteers safely prepared and handed out more than 150 meals, received a tour of the building and enjoyed each others company. In addition, our youth prepared desserts as part of the meal for that evening. Thank you to everyone who gave of their time! We were incredibly grateful to volunteer and share our safely masked smiles to the greater Green Bay community. We hope to be able to serve again soon!

November Service to New Community Shelter!

The Shelter has temporarily suspended their volunteer program (because of rising community Covid numbers) but they still need our help!

The youth of St. John have been asked to provide desserts for the Shelter's meal on Saturday, November 7th.

Please sign-up here to make a dessert (1-2 dozen bars and cookies are the best) I will pick these up on Saturday morning and deliver them to the Shelter. Once their program is open and available, we will be back.
Thank you!

GOD'S WORK. OUR HANDS, THROUGH ADVOCACY

During my recent participation in the group discussion of “Government and Civic Engagement in the United States: Discipleship in a Democracy”, I learned to view government as a gift from God. I had not thought of government as that before. I also gained the perspective that as a Christian it is my responsibility to assess government policies by asking:

is the neighbor being served? And advocating for policies that serve neighbors and care for God’s creation is also my Christian responsibility.

From the ELCA website (ELCA.org/Advocacy) you can read the following;

Why is advocacy important? Isn't our direct service work enough?

As the ELCA, we believe God is calling us into the world to serve together. Through our direct service, we aid immediate needs before us. Through our advocacy work, we impact systemic, long-lasting change.

The public policies our officials write, amend and ultimately adopt can have ongoing effects on our neighbors who are struggling with hunger and living with poverty, as well as God’s creation. By telling our lawmakers how Lutheran ministries help our world and urging them to advance legislation that reflects these commitments, we are helping create opportunities to overcome poverty, promote peace and dignity, and defend God’s creation.

Why does the ELCA understand advocacy to be part of its mission?

We are a church that is energized by lively engagement in our faith and public life. We serve in response to God’s love to meet human needs and protect creation. When we, as ELCA members, lift our voices together to influence policies that advance the common good, we further God’s work in our world.

We are also a church that thinks of governments as helpful ways God is active in our world. This is clear from the very first generation of Lutheran reformers and their actions. When you write your public official, you are uniting with an apostolic community of Lutherans concerned with how public policies work for our neighbors as a matter of faith.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church of America has advocacy offices at the state and federal level. Lutheran Office for Public Policy (loppw.org) is our state level advocacy office. Its mission statement reads, “In faithful response to God’s love, we engage people of faith in the ministry of advocacy for policies that support peace, justice and care for all of God’s creation.” This website provides resources and tools to support advocacy in a variety of ways on a variety of issues such as; anti human trafficking, hunger, caring for God’s creation and others.

If you are interested in learning more about ELCA advocacy and/or opportunities for you to engage in advocacy, please log in to loppw.org or ELCA.org/Advocacy.

Peace, Beth Challe

SERVING CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

We are excited to again be a part of The DPCO Christmas Store. Although this year due to the pandemic the "store" will look very different. Out of an abundance of care and safety, we have decided to forego the physical store set up with shopping; and instead provide families with gift cards so they can shop for the holidays for themselves.

The past two years DPCO Christmas Store has joyfully provided Christmas gifts for low income/at risk families of De Pere. These families are referred by school social workers and the DPCO Pantry. The 2019 Christmas store provided 150 families including 436 children with clothing, gifts & basic household items. This was roughly a 45% increase from 2018. With the impact of the pandemic we anticipate this number will grow even more for the 2020 store.

We need your help to continue to serve the nearly 200 families in need in our community.

Here is how you can help:

Purchase gift cards from stores such as Walgreens, Kohl's, Menards or Walmart, fast food places such as Subway, Culver's or McDonalds, or Amazon gift cards. It's most helpful for distribution, if cards are in amounts up to $25 each. These cards will be divided among the families based on need. The families will then use the cards to purchase gifts on their own. Please bring gift cards to church by Sunday, November 27, 2020.

You may also make a cash donation. Monetary donations will be used to purchase additional gift cards for families.

Thank you for helping to make the holidays brighter for children and families in the De Pere community.
